

Gathering Threads 2011
A Celebration of Fibre and Community

To celebrate our guild's 40th anniversary, we are hosting an exciting fibre event

May 12 - 15, 2011 at the University of Western Ontario.

Please join us in one of 13 fibre related workshops led by internationally known teachers including Janet Bolton, Lorraine Roy, Margi Hennen, Sylvia Naylor,

William Hodge, Judith Tinkl, Judith Marquis, Rose Newlove, Glee Barnard and more.

There will also be exhibitions, vendors, a wearable art fashion show and banquet,

a teachers' panel discussion and demonstrations...these events will also be open to the public.

CEG, London is inviting the London community and beyond to celebrate our forty years of involvement in this community...involvement that has included enhancing public spaces with textile art pieces, promoting textile art education, and giving strong support as a creative outlet for the hundreds of members who have helped the guild grow and flourish to become the vibrant and forward thinking group it is today .

We want to share our passion for the beauty and versatility that fibre has to offer. Fibre connects the past with the future, the traditional with the contemporary.

Follow the progress of Gathering Threads by visiting our website at www.ceglondon.com

Registration begins in January 2011...We hope to see you there!

